BIO

I am a New Orleans based graphic designer that was born and raised in Michigan. In 2005 I attended the University of Michigan on scholarship. After 5 years - including a semester off to travel throughout the United States - I graduated and within three months moved down to the Crescent City.

You can regularly find me: checking Behance, Abduzeedo, FFFFOUND, and Design You Trust; at a Café Envie, reading The Elements of Typographic Style by Bringhurst; trying to find the nearest electronic music; or just cruising around town on my bike.
